What We Do

The Workshop is an independent Registered Charity (No. 519685) which uses the Performing and Visual Arts as a means of building confidence and a sense of self-worth amongst local teenagers.

Why We're Different

Being independent comes at a cost. As our members soon discover, in the process of becoming an adult they lose the comforts and security of being a child. In much the same way, The Workshop loses out on any financial security afforded by a more substantial entity being responsible for it.

As a result, The Workshop is completely at the mercy of the goodwill it generates. Given that its purpose is to encourage teenagers to dare to be themselves, it would be less than credible if it 'sold out' its independence in favour of the cosy bosom of a parental organisation, or the questionable embrace of a bureaucratic nanny who might (or might not) provide financial support - just so long as we don't have too many ideas of our own, rock the boat, or in any way question their strictures for being a good boy.

We seek your support in keeping our most valuable asset, our Independence, and ask if you would please consider becoming an Angel today.

- Mike Ward, Founder

1. If your Gift Aid declaration covers donations you may make in the future please notify 'The Workshop' if you change your name and address while the declaration is still in force. You can cancel your declaration at any time by notifying 'The Workshop', it will then not apply to donations you make on or after the date of cancellation or such later date as you specify.
2. You must pay an amount of income tax and/or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that the charity reclaims on your donations in the tax year (currently 25p for each £1 you give).
3. If in the future your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that the charity reclaims, you can cancel your declaration (see note 1).
4. If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self Assessment Tax return.
5. If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift Aid tax relief, you can ask your local tax office for leaflet IR113 Gift Aid.
